JAMES ROSS ON DAVID BLACK AND KITIMAT CLEAN

Calgary, AB.- (June 3, 2013) Expander Energy CEO James Ross was quoted in the June 1, 2013 cover story in the Financial Post on David Black and his plan to build a new oil refinery in British Columbia utilizing Expander FTCrude[®] technology.

“We are very supportive of Mr. Black and his vision of a refinery project Kitimat Clean on the west coast to transport Alberta oil to the Asian market and are very proud to be able to play a major role in this vital project” said Mr. Ross.

About Expander Energy

Expander Energy is a leading developer and licensor of processes to convert carbon sources into valuable synthetic fuels. Our engineered fuels are ultra-clean burning and complement existing transportation fuel infrastructure and current engine technologies. Our fuels increase production yield, reduce GHG emissions, and are produced from carbon rich materials such as natural gas, biomass, bitumen residuals, petcoke and municipal solid waste. We strive to deliver an alternative, drop in fuel through patented technology to provide economic growth for Alberta and Canada while being environmentally conscious. Expander Energy Inc. is a privately held energy company located in Calgary, Alberta, Canada.
